

20/37	RoSPA Playground Inspection – DT to organise for the biennial playground Inspection with RoSPA.	DT
20/38	Taylor Wimpey – Cllr Julie Iles noted that the new owners of the Airfield site, Taylor Wimpey have been very accommodating of the local residents’ views and very helpful with maintaining security at the site. Taylor Wimpey have offered to meet with each Parish to discuss the proposals for the site and any villagers’ issues. ST has contacted the PC’s of the relevant Parishes, East Horsley, West Horsley, Ripley, Ockham and West Clandon to request that we have a joint meeting with Taylor Wimpey. West Horsley have a meeting already arranged with them on 21 st July 2020 and East Horsley and West Clandon have asked to be included. DT to contact Ripley for their response.
20/39	AOB: a) COVID-19 and SCC. Julie Iles gave a full update about the SCC work during the COVID pandemic and the work SCC are undertaking to reopen services as we come out of lockdown. b) A246 Motor bike issue. IP thanked Julie Iles for her help in resolving the issue with the motor bikes on the A246 and confirmed that there would now be more police presence on that stretch of road. c) FTTP. Andy Hay has been in touch with BT to get a solution to the Fibre Optic Tech cable for the village and in particular ‘North Clandon’. AM agreed to liaise with Andy to run a task team to oversee the project. IP to be involved in a non-technical capacity. ST to contact Andy Hay re: task team. d) Local Plan Management Document. CG has been reviewing the Local Plan Management Policy document (218 pages). Tim Anderson suggested that CG liaise with Cllr Catherine Young and Cllr Chris Barrass, who have completed much research on the document re: completing the related questionnaire as the deadline for replies is 22nd July. e) Register of Interests. DT requested that all Councillors check on the web site to ensure their Register of Interests was up to date and requested that MP complete his RoI.	AM/IP CG All Cllrs
